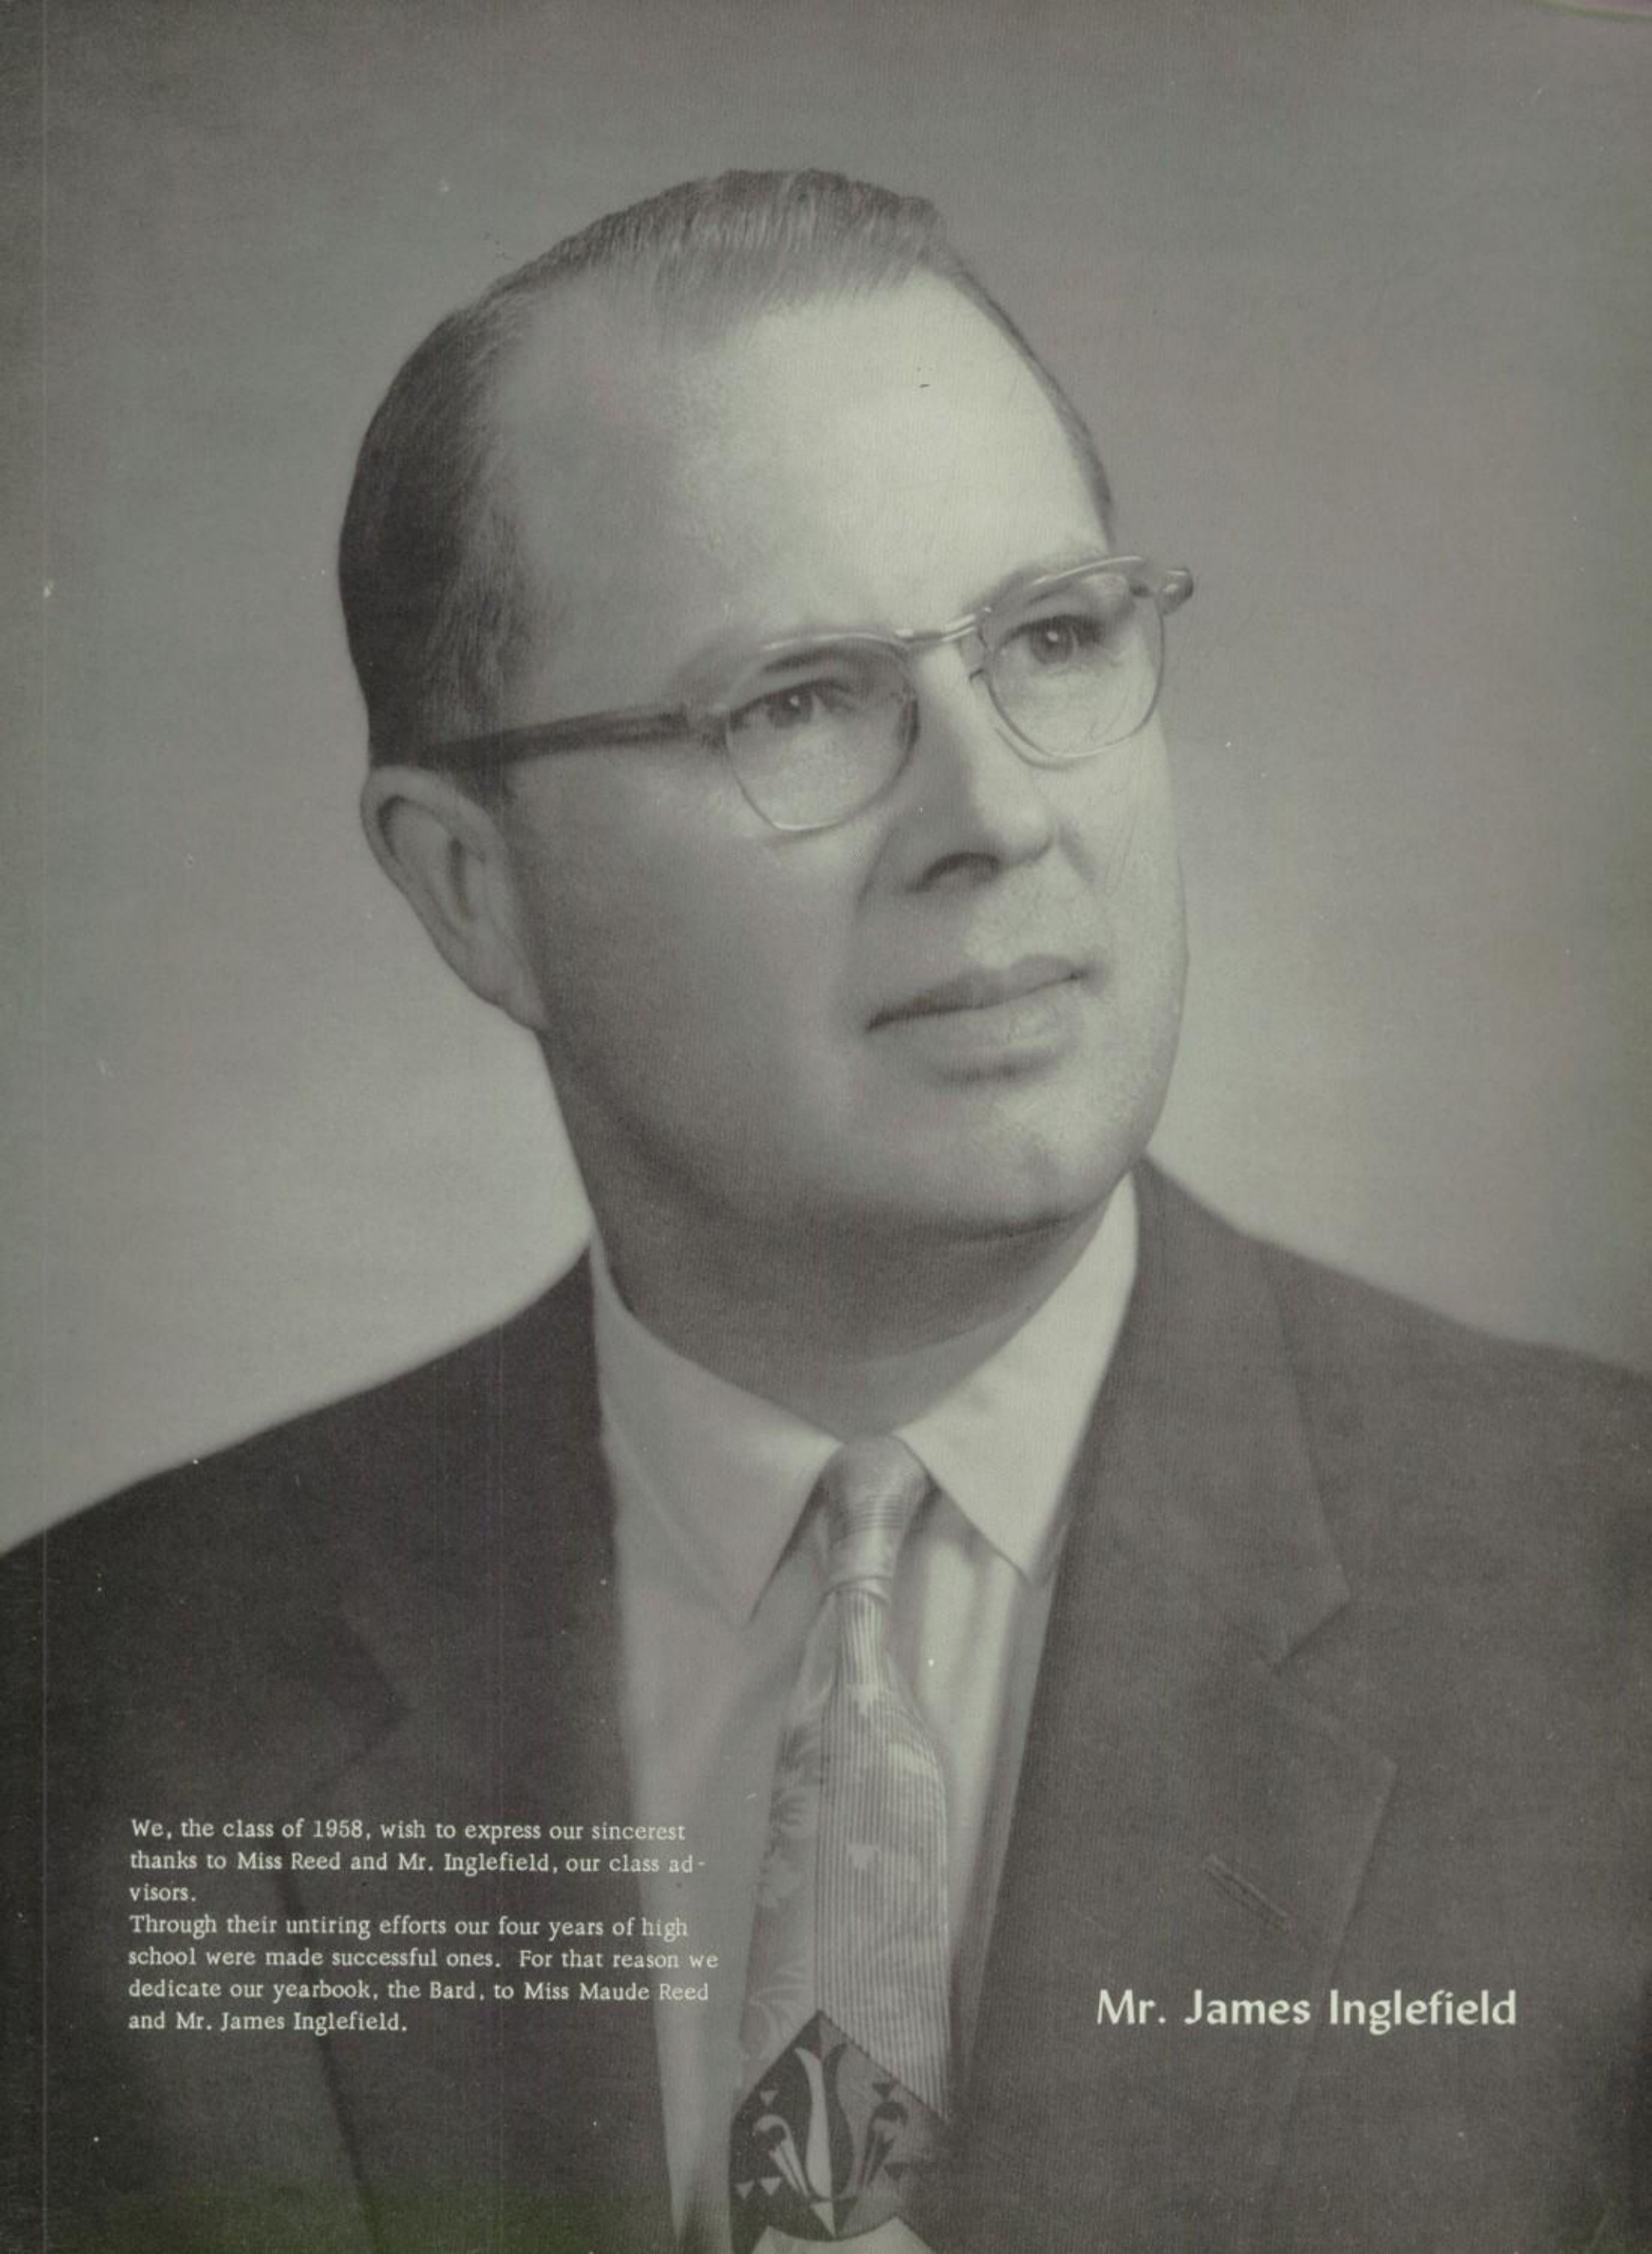
Miss Maude Reed



We, the class of 1958, wish to express our sincerest thanks to Miss Reed and Mr. Inglefield, our class advisors.

Through their untiring efforts our four years of high school were made successful ones. For that reason we dedicate our yearbook, the Bard, to Miss Maude Reed and Mr. James Inglefield.

Mr. James Inglefield

Foreword

We hope that you, as Seniors, will look back through the years with us and relive the most wonderful years of our lives.
As members of the 1958 Bard Staff, we have endeavored to retain in this book the memories glowing in our hearts. The glow that is the symbol of the happy days we've known, of countless friends and dreams come true, of four short years that have passed by too quickly.

Superintendent

To the Members of the Graduating Class of 1958

Congratulations upon the successful completion of twelve years' work in the Hubbard Public Schools. That coveted diploma is yours--you've made the grade. The question is, what now? Adult responsibilities will be coming your way. You must decide whether to prepare yourself for one of the professions by continuing your formal education or to secure a position which will provide the challenge and security you desire in life. Life will be what you make of it. You are now a member of a community team working for the right things. Places of leadership are reserved for those who demonstrate ability. It is my sincere hope that Hubbard High School made many lasting friendships among you graduating seniors. Visit us whenever you find it convenient.....We are always interested in you and your successes.
What gets your attention will get you. May you always find life a stimulating and rewarding experience.
Best wishes to all of you for a successful, useful life.

Principal

To the Members of the Graduating Class of 1958

During the past twelve years you have been associated with many fine teachers. They have given their best efforts to insure your future success in life.

The fact that you have acquired knowledge is not enough, however. You must learn to use what you have to improve the community in which you live or society as you know it, will cease to exist.

Therefore, utilize every scrap of information you have gathered throughout the years in learning to live with yourself and others.

I congratulate you on work well done and I wish you continued success.

Sincerely,
C. E. Jones

Marching Band—"57-58"

The Hubbard High School marching band, composed of 72 members, is considered one of the finest in the area. Requirements for participating in this organization are a knowledge of music and a willingness to work! Every 6th period for the first 2 1/2 months of school is spent in practicing formations given during half-time at football games.

Aside from the football games, the band is kept busy marching in parades and other activities.

Memorial Day, Halloween, and Christmas Parades would never be complete without them,and this year the Homecoming Parade was added to their schedule. The Youngstown Christmas Parade is also an annual event in which they participate.

The motto of the band is "Neither hail, sleet, snow, nor rain will keep the band from playing."

Cheerleaders

Hard work, pep, enthusiasm, patience, and cooperation make a good cheerleader. Hubbard High had a splendid display of all five of these qualities this year. The girls with the much appreciated help of their advisor practiced hard, starting in the last part of August and continued practicing throughout the year, preparing for both football and basketball seasons. Mrs. Theisen and her girls deserve the highest praise for their achievements during the 1957-1958 season.
Good work girls!

Each year at Hubbard High School four girls are elected to reign over Homecoming festivities. This year the members of the varsity football squad elected lovely senior, Bonnie Smith as the official queen. The three attendants, one from each class, were elected by their respective classes. The freshmen chose Janie Patton as their representative; the sophomores elected Kathy Hummel; and the juniors honored Joan McKee.
In keeping with tradition, the girls came onto the field in four beautiful convertibles escorted by the president of their respective classes. They were then escorted to the center of the field where the Queen was crowned and then presented the co-captains of the football team with the football and a kiss from their queen.
Following the game, the annual Homecoming Dance was held at the High School Gym where the queen was further honored by being presented with an autographed football from the team.

Halloween Queen

A hit with the kids.

The big parade.

Halloween is usually associated with witches and goblins, but in Hubbard, the festivities center around beauty. The evening began this year with the traditional parade featuring all candidates for queen. Upon reaching their destination, Hubbard Junior High School gymnasium, they were escorted to the stage by the class presidents through an honor guard formed by the band.

The big moment finally arrived and Helen Maritch, senior candidate, was crowned Halloween Queen of 1957 by 1956 Queen, Beth Patton. Our queen was presented with a bouquet of mums and a beautiful bracelet to remember the evening by. A dance, for the public, was given in her honor with music by Charlie James.

Senior Queen.

Let's get together.

Football

Although the "57" Eagles did not have much better than an average or slightly below win-loss record this season we can be justly proud of our team.
They never quit fighting and their spirit and good sportsmanship was always of the highest caliber. Their will to win and fighting spirit can be seen in the fact that after a slow start with 1 tie and 2 losses they came back to down a strong Hickory 42-20.
Midway in the season the flu epidemic played havoc with the team as they were forced to play the Boardman game with most of the regular squad out of action with the virus.
The epidemic also forced the postponement and rescheduling of the Sharpsville and Struthers games which were finally made up late in the season.
To Coach Modak and all the boys we owe a debt of gratitude for their long hours of hard work and their persistance in carrying on in the fine Hubbard tradition against many obstacles to complete the season with spirit high.

Advisor Mrs. Herriman is also observing, thinking that since the New Junior Classical League is now organized and already has one hundred forty-eight members, these two clubs will together be able to broaden their range of activities. The French Club was organized to further the interest and knowledge of the French language and French customs. The club meets on the last Thursday of each month, and initiation is held at the beginning of the year. The members have enjoyed talks given by guest speakers who have, in some way, been associated with the country of France.

There is also a social side to the club. To join in the spirit of festivities of Christmas time, they have a Christmas party with all the trimmings; and a Christmas program later in the evening. The organization also holds swimming and skating parties throughout the year.

All this could not be done without the help of Mr. Madomma, our language teacher.

Thespians

The Thespian Club of Hubbard High School consists of people who have been in three one-act plays or one three act play. They meet every first and third Tuesday of the month.
This year the Thespians plan to have a spring banquet and have an assembly program planned for each holiday of the school year.

"Quiet Please." These are the words most often spoken by the library aids. Besides assisting the librarian in keeping the library quiet and orderly, they also help the students with reference work and show them how to use the library to their best advantage.
The library aids have a newly organized club which has made some interesting field trips.

Office Aids

Writing permits, answering the phone, distributing absentee slips, typing, keeping files, and generally helping the efficient secretaries are some of the duties of the Office Aids. They are always ready to meet and greet students with a warm smile and helping hand. Much credit is due to these girls for dedicating part of their time each day toward a smoother running school.

The 1957-58 basketball season which is still in progress at the time this yearbook goes to press has been thus far a fairly good one for the Hubbard cagers. This is shown in their good percentage in the won and lost columns. Three seniors formed the nucleus of this year's team; they are Frank Praznick, who is this year's captain, Hughie McBride, top scorer for the Hubbard five, and 6'4" center Oliver McPeters. Also showing well for his first year in varsity was Dave Hallman. The juniors were John Gregory, one of the starting five, Carl Bartone, and Al Henry. Seeing varsity action also this year are two sophomores Nick Novasel, and Joe Dubyiak.

SPRING

Kathy Jane,

To one of the nicest and best friends I have. Ill always remember the fun we have had together Especially the many parties at your house. Remember the first one. (How could you forget) Do you remember the time I stayed all night at your house when you lived out in the country. We went out in the woods and some cows or horses started following us. We really have had lots of fun together!!!

Ill never forget the time we went to that haunted house when Ray was driving Tommys car. Remember how scared we were when Tommy said someone was looking out the window. Remember the pajama parties at your house and the time you and I woke up first and started playing records while Carol + Judy were sleeping.

I hope we will always be real good friends and can have as much fun in the future as we have had in the past. I know you will always be a very close friend of mine. I want to wish you the best of everything because you really deserve it more than anyone I know

Your friend
Marilyn Jane

National Honor Society

Each year at the close of the first semester the faculty of Hubbard High School must choose the students whom they believe are the most deserving for membership to the N.H.S.
This decision must be based on not only the student's scholarship, but also his service, dependability, character, and leadership.
Any student who is a junior or senior with a B or better average is eligible.
This organization is purely honorary and has only one activitiy, the formal induction service held shortly after the new members have been announced.
The only meeting held is for the purpose of electing officers. Mr. Schmidt and Mrs. Englehart are the advisors.
The purpose of N.H.S. is to encourage students to strive for better grades, higher standards, and to develop a well-rounded personality.
With these aims and strict requirements for membership in N.H.S., it is a hard-earned reward, also a great honor.

The Future Homemakers of America is a club open to all students who have taken Home Economics any year in high school.

The purpose of the club is to develop interest in Home Economics and community responsibility. Each year the club plans and carries out some form of Home Economics project to raise funds which are given to a selected community project.

The different steps in the course are cooking which includes canning and baking. Sewing teaches the girls to be thrifty and save money on clothes. Child-care and home-decorating are very interesting and useful to the young homemakers.

Garden of Memories

Crowning Ceremony

How Pretty

Soft lights, magnificent floral arrangements, sweet music, and handsome, light-hearted couples blended harmoniously together on the evening of May 10, 1957, to make the Prom one of the most memorable evenings for the Juniors and Seniors of Hubbard High School.

Many hours of hard work went into developing the effectiveness of the enchanting theme, "Garden of Memories."

Especially will this event be remembered by Jim Barita and Judy Ross, king and queen, chosen by the Junior class. Our class president, John Handzush and Betty Lou Black crowned the becoming couple.

A delicious buffet-style luncheon with soft candlelight was enjoyed by all in the cafeteria, while the music of Charlie James floating in from the gym formed a delightful mood background.

A Cappella Choir

Close harmony, hours of long practice, the director's understanding and patience, and the strong enthusiasium from students went together to make this year's A'Cappella choir one of the finest at Hubbard. The choir consists of seventy members from grades nine through twelve.

Under the direction of Mr. Hamilton the choir has taken part in many activities. Among those are the singing of seasonal songs at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter assemblies. During the Christmas week the choir goes caroling through the halls of Hubbard High School.

The choir also participated along with the concert band in the April music festival. The A'Cappella choir sings the religious songs at our World Day of Prayer assembly, P.T.A., and Baccalaureate exercises. Other than the religious songs, the choir sings jazz, classical, popular, and standard tunes.

Through their work in choir, the members of A'Cappella gain a deeper appreciation of all forms and types of music. They also learn the importance of close harmony and cooperation in producing any worthwhile finished product--be it a vocal concert or simply a friendship.

The Girl Leaders is an organization for sophomore, junior, and senior girls. The selection of members is based on leadership, ability to get along with other students, dependability, and good sportsmanship. Members are selected by previous members of the organization and their physical education teacher. A girl must have at least a "C" average to become and remain a member. They hold regular meetings and have elected officers.

The duties of the girls are assisting their instructor, Mrs. Theisen, in regular gym classes, helping to promote an interest in girls' sports, and acting as officials in the girls' intramural program.

One of the main activities in which they take part is play day. It is a day in May when various activities are participated in by different schools for the whole day. Refreshments are served and awards are given to the schools winning the contests.

Kathy,
The very best of luck in anything that you may attempt. Always keep your sweet personality. Always remember the fun we've had & hope there's always more friends to come.

It has been the custom for two girls and three boys to represent Hubbard at Girls' State which is at Capital University in Columbus, Ohio and Boys' State, which is held at Camp Perry, Ohio.

The girls are sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary and the boys are sponsored by the Optimist Club, Kiwanis, and the American Legion Boys' State Program.

The Students who are chosen have to have certain qualities such as having a good grade average and having an interest in government.

This is a great opportunity for the ones who attend because they learn so much about our local government. They actually set up a mock government in the week they spend there.

The Hub, our school magazine, is published by the Journalism class of Hubbard High School. There will be four issues of the magazine this year. The issues are for Homecoming Day, Christmas, Valentines Day, and another close to graduation day.

The word Hub is derived from the first three letters of the school name, Hubbard High.

The expenses of the magazine are maintained through advertising and subscriptions. The Hub plays an important part in our school activities and helps to create and strengthen our school spirit. It also furnishes the students with news of what is going on around their school.

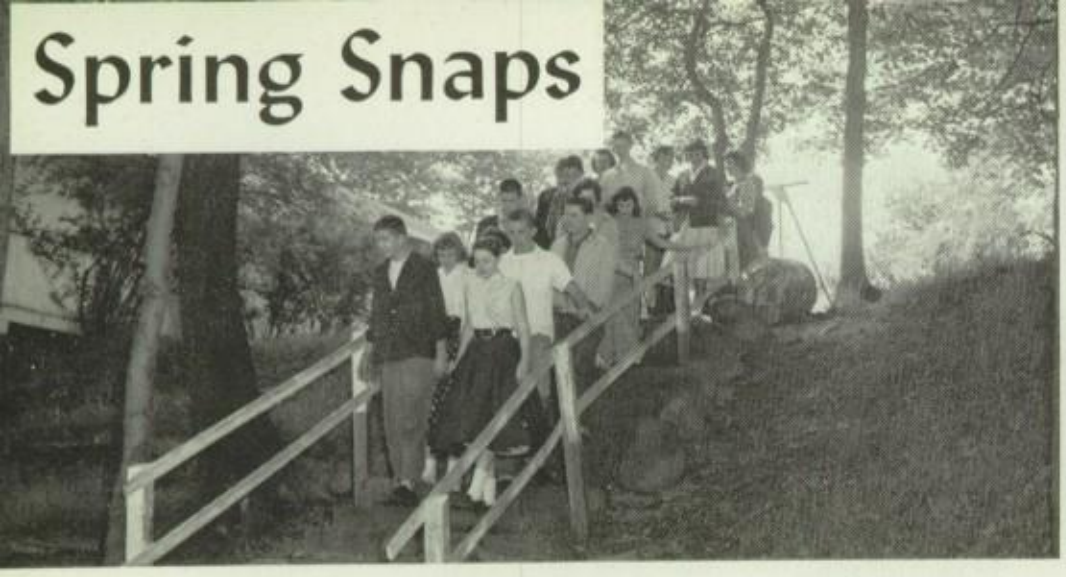
Three sections of "58" Bard Staff hard at work & Subscription Staff.

Here it is, another Bard, and true to form bigger and better than the preceding ones. But don't think planning such a book is a snap and a lot of fun for it isn't all that. Early in 1957 Mr. Herrmann started laying plans for our Bard. After some discussing, American Yearbook was decided to be our publisher. These people proved to be very kind and willing to help us with our problems.

Pictures on these pages are the staff which spent many hours cropping pictures, drawing layouts, writing copy, taking subscriptions and selling advertisement. We've done our best for HHS and the class of "58" and hope you enjoy this book as much as we enjoyed putting it out.

Spring Snaps



On a picnic morning!

Having a riot!

Round and Round, Up and Down!

Hoping the Teeter Toter won't break

The big game!

Talking it over!

Cooling Off!

Hail, Hail, the gang's all here!

Oh Hubbard High,
We cherish thy dear name,
We will revere,
Thy colors blue and white.
In all our deeds,
We strive to raise thy fame.
Now as we sing,
We praise thee to the heights.
To Hubbard High,
Our hearts will e'er be true.
Oh Hubbard High,
Long wave the white, the blue.

Kathy,

Best of Luck to a real swell girlfriend a girl could have. (Huh!) Just stay as nice as you are and keep that great personality. And best of luck in your designing career. (You sure do have a long long ways to go.)

Remember all the good times we had together (not the bad ones). Don't forget the times I stayed all night. We ~~really~~ always made a night of it.

Class History

It seems like only yesterday that a group of bright eyed, rosy cheeked children tearfully left their mother's side and began their first year of school. Although at first it was terribly hard to sit still all day when we were accustomed to running about; our kind teachers helped us. Who can forget the mice, Marilalee, Madalee, and Susalee, in Mrs. Burnet's room! Or the time at St. Pat's when Dan Madeline got his hands smacked with the ruler? What terrible thing did you do, Dan? In Mrs. Painter's room Juanita Thompson did not feel like sitting at her desk one day, but if we remember correctly she changed her mind due to the persuasive manner of Mrs. Painter.

One day in Miss Neptune's room another stubborn little girl named Carol Krause would not stop bothering Bob Hinerman, so she was asked to stand in the hall. This scene was familiar to many of the children in the following days and none of us, we are sure, will forget the embarrassment we suffered when a visitor would enter the school and find us being punished in this manner. But we soon settled down and began our studies. Who can ever forget the day we came home and read to our mother--"Look, Jane, look. Run, Spot, run. Jane, look and run with Spot." How proud we were! Christmas time soon rolled around and we had a visitor at Roosevelt School--Santa Clause!! Gee, the popcorn balls and candy he gave us tasted good, didn't they?

After we came back from vacation, everyone brought his favorite toy and paraded around to the other first grade rooms. It surely was hard to set our toys down and study! The next big event that came up was Valentine's Day. Following that were Washington's and Lincoln's birthdays. Remember the big valentines and log cabins we colored and the songs we sang--"Said Washington to Betsy Ross a Flag Our Nation Needs." We might not have been singing the right notes but no one can complain we weren't singing loud enough. The years passed swiftly and our studies progressed rapidly. Although everyone of us would rather have died than to admit it, WE LOVED SCHOOL!!

During these years we had many activities to help to pass the time away. Who remembers the ant villages in Mrs. Jenkins' and Miss Hamill's room or the popcorn parties in the fifth and sixth grade? One of the most memorable of these activities was the annual music festival. When the teachers were preparing for this we soon learned to be good and stay out of their way.
Remember the year all the little girls were flowers and the chorus sang "April Showers." Then in our last music festival we performed a little Irish dance. The teachers had quite a time that year because there was an epidemic of measles. Our elementary years having been completed, we passed the first milestone of our school life, the changing of classes in our seventh year.

This event was happily anticipated but we soon discovered it was not as easy as had been expected. Teachers soon grew weary of finding a student at the wrong time in the wrong place on the wrong day. How we loved it though, being able to participate in the excitement and activities of the high school upperclassmen. Many of us remember Mr. Cunningham's geography class and the songs he used to play on his ukulele and the rush to the library for reports when your grade was slipping. At lunch time there were such things as continued movies at 2¢ a day. Did any of us ever see the whole movie? There was also dancing in the gym and a gum chewing contest.

No one can imagine our great disappointment when we entered the 8th grade and found that once again we were confined to one room. But it didn't turn out to be so terrible. We were now considered "seniors" of the Junior High. Some of us were responsible for handing out milk and cleaning the tables in the cafeteria which had just been started. We enjoyed doing this especially since we got out of class. Time waits for no one and we soon found ourselves in our freshman year in the new high school. Again we were changing classes and this we had to grow accustomed to all over again. It really wasn't so bad being the "babies" of the high school.

Things weren't the same in this new world. Pleasant acquaintances that we had always known were replaced by new and different personalities. In those first few weeks the upperclassmen could always spot a freshman by the bundle of books under his arm and the little blue book that he carried open to the map of the school. Although the upperclassmen were very nice about giving directions, we would always be more confused when they finished. The teachers were very patient with us in the first few weeks; if you came in fifteen or twenty minutes late, nothing was said.

It soon was time for the election of class officers and the responsibility of choosing capable ones was our first task as a class. After much consideration, we elected Bob Hinerman - President, Lynda Ingram - Vice President, Betty Lou Black - Secretary, and Delores Tuchek - Treasurer. The freshman football team elected Juanita Thompson as our candidate for Halloween Queen. We selected as our class colors red and white and the red carnation as our class flower. In the weeks to come we proved ourselves to be an industrious and hard working class by selling pencils. The upperclassmen bought pencils and more pencils - thanks to our perseverances. Boy, were they glad when we had finally sold all we had ordered.

Miss Reed and Mr. Inglefield were very good advisors. It was because of their efforts that we had class parties which were a huge success. At the one on Valentine's Day, do any of you remember Mr. Smelko doing the Hutchie Kutchie? This was a far cry from his businesslike manner in science class. Our freshman subjects were very difficult for most of us. We were unaccustomed to working for "X" the unknown or learning a language other than English. Gee, we had enough trouble with English, but golly Latin and Spanish were impossible! But most of us survived our first year successfully and we found ourselves one of the upperclassmen. We surely felt important and made it a point in the first few weeks of school to address a freshman as an underclassman.

As our money making projects we had the concession stands at the football and basketball games and a "Mile of Pennies," which was trying to get a mile of pennies when they were laid side by side. This proved to be successful and we soon grew tired of counting those dirty old pennies. For our class officers we choose Tony Rosile as President, Donna Wood as Vice-president, Betty Lou Black as Secretary, and Pat Kopp as Treasurer. Our Homecoming attendant was Delores Tuchek and our candidate for Holloween Queen was Pat Kopp. In the spring as was the tradition we gave the Seniors their farewell dance. This affair turned out to be a huge success,but the part that we enjoyed most was the decorating. This was our first experience with decorating for a dance.

Almost before we knew it, our sophomore year was over, and we were juniors. We were now considered young adults. Our boys were at last on first string and helped to make for Hubbard one of their most successful seasons. Some of us had our first taste of chemistry and got a big bang out of it. It was here that Ron Devor and Carl Zetterquist discovered a hobby: Collecting test tubes. We soon elected our class officers which were - President, John Handzush; Vice-President, Dan Madeline; Secretary, Pat Kopp; Treasurer, Madelon Mitchell. Our Homecoming attendant was Doris Carano and our Halloween candidate for queen was Bonnie Smith. We gave our first and last class party for the year at Thanksgiving.

The long awaited day finally arrived when Mr. Herrmann announced junior class play tryouts. That night, a group of eager juniors competed for the parts. Although this was our first attempt at real acting, the play, (Father Knows Best), proved successful. The person who risked his own personal health was Jack Choppa, who reluctantly allowed himself to be doused with a bucket of water. In January, preparations began for what was to be one of the biggest events of our class history, our Junior-Senior Prom. Although the seniors tried every devised method to discover the theme of the dance it remained a well kept secret. At last our careful planning was put to use and our masterpiece emerged. We titled it "Garden of Memories."

The boys in their tuxedos looked very handsome but uncomfortable, while the girls appeared charming but equally as uncomfortable. Shortly after this prom we said our good-byes to the class that had seen us through three years of growing up. It was difficult to see them graduate when we knew we would be the next class to be seated on the stage. We got the year off to a good start by electing capable class officers. They were as follows: Bill Dunmire, President; Dave Bailey, Vice-President; Carolyn Datko, Secretary; and Kitty McKee, Treasurer. Bonnie Smith was chosen Homecoming Queen and our Halloween Queen candidate was Helen Maritch. The good start did not last long because the beginning of our senior year will probably be remembered with these words "I think I've got the Flu."

Although many classmates were out with this sickness, we still held our play tryouts, and a cast was selected by Miss Christy, the new director. The play was a comedy entitled, "Best Foot Forward." In spite of the epidemic, it proved to be a huge success. Christmas time again found the seniors decorating the gym for the traditional Christmas Formal. It provided a festive note to begin the holiday season. The seniors soon found themselves caught in the whirl of activities such as the ordering of name cards and pictures. Then came the passing out of these pictures and name cards to our friends and classmates. We made orders for our caps and gowns and then came the asking of our favorite belle or beau to the Senior Dinner Dance.

Before we knew it, it was again time for the Junior-Senior Prom. Only this year, we were on the receiving end. The juniors proved themselves to be capable and artistic and gave us a prom long to be remembered. The final dance of our high school years was the Senior Farewell Dance given by the sophomores. The gym, decorated in our class colors, red and white, was a beautiful sight we seniors shall never forget. As our senior year drew to a close the traditional Baccalaureate service was given for us. After receiving the blessing of the school there was only one event left in our class history, GRADUATION . After years of waiting, we, the class of '58, found ourselves on the stage receiving our diplomas. Yes, our high school history has ended, but we do not think of that. We think of the future and the history yet to be made.

Carol Williams

With the halls now empty, fond memories of club parties, dances, class plays, assemblies, and changing of classes all make room for a new school year. Monitors silently holding their posts, lockers only temporarily closed, and hallways straight and true cause us to sorrowfully miss the good times we had in our school, Hubbard High.

Kathy:
Best of luck to a real nice kid. Remember
all the fun and teasing.
I hope you didn't get mad when I teased you.
